

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

The only way that this concentraion of ownership would be acceptable would be if all media companies were declared common carriers, and programming was available on demand. Not until then.